

Happy Valleyball Girl's Basketball Tournament November 18th and 19th

The tournament will be held on Friday November 18th and Saturday November 19th, 2011 at Happy Valley's new gymnasium. Both the 7th and 8th grade brackets will have 5 minute quarters.

Games will begin every hour on the hour. If we get off schedule, there will be 5 minutes to warm-up in between games.

In case of a tie game there will be a two minute overtime. If the game is still tied the game will go into sudden death, with the first team to score winning. If there is no score in the sudden death two minute overtime, the game is a tie.

The first team listed in the tournament will be home, wear light-colored jerseys and warm-up at the end with the main clock and sit furthest from the clock. Half time will be (5) minutes long.

There will be $100 entry fee per team.

Make checks payable to Happy Valley Athletics and mail to 17480 Palm Ave., Anderson, CA. 96007

All teams are asked to pick up their bench area after the game.

There will be a snack bar with many selections. Please let your players and families know.

In the event of a tie at the end of the tournament the first tie breaker is head to head competition. The second is the team with the lowest allowed scoring total for all games will be deemed the winner.

In the event of a 20 point difference we will go to a running clock.

There is an admission fee for all spectators which is $2.00 for adults and $1.00 for children or $8.00 for a two day family pass (two adults and up to four children).
